riveting true life story of a christian palestinian from galilee brings to life the history of modern israel and offers insight into living at peace if christians follow the prince of peace why do they often behave so violently what can be done to transform the church so that it looks more like jesus eric seibert explores these questions in this important and timely study he builds a biblical and practical case for living nonviolently in all areas of life and urges christians to reexamine their most fundamental attitudes toward violence warfare and killing through true stories and careful analysis seibert demonstrates that it is possible to resolve conflict correct injustice and stop oppression without resorting to violence many nonviolent alternatives are discussed throughout the book alternatives that can be used in a wide range of situations from dealing with an unwanted intruder at home to removing a dictator from power in a world filled with so much violence hate and fear alternatives like these are desperately needed this book offers hope that a better way is possible one that has the potential to transform the church and change the world so read on and join in one of the most persistent if vexing issues facing not just theology but also political theory sociology and other disciplines is the ongoing palestinian israeli conflict for theology the problem is especially nettlesome on account of the church s shared history and tradition with the jewish people palestinians including palestinian christians bear the brunt of suffering and dispossession in the current situation yet are burdened even more by christian political appropriation of zionism through an analysis of palestinian refugee mapping practices for returning to their homeland alain epp weaver takes up the troubled issue of palestinian dispossession and argues against the political theology embedded in zionist cartographic practices that refuse and seek to eliminate evidence of co existence instead alain epp weaver offers a political theology of redrawing the territory compatible with a bi national vision for a shared palestinian israeli future everyone loves a good story one with interesting characters an intriguing plot lots of twists and turns and a surprise ending storytelling is an entertaining art but it is also instructive and essential to intellectual moral and spiritual growth literature as all art is a gift of divine grace a pathway to mystery each literary experience is slightly beyond our horizon of understanding what a gift literature is when it enhances spirituality each literary moment confounds in order to keep us going and growing the restoration of wonder is the beginning of the inward journey toward the awaiting god soul food contains stories that are both entertaining and inspiring wholesome and heart warming some are humorous others are tragic or sad but all are memorable the collection is divided into five sections 1 personal stories 2 biblical and faith stories 3 classic stories fables and tales 4 literary and historical stories and 5 inspirational stories some of these stories come from personal experience my own and that of family and friends others including myths legends fantasies and tales come from folklore and oral tradition while others are taken from the public domain as you read these stories sequentially or randomly i trust they will aid you in your quest for meaning direction and stability enjoy these stories and may they enhance your journey through life and its manifold seasons i hope you will return to this collection repeatedly finding in these stories courage wisdom and inspiration the theological journal is designed to enable our practitioners to capably integrate theological concepts into their practice the articles are written by ccda members and will challenge us to go deeper theologically while giving us language that will allow us to dialogue outside of the academy theological reflection and engagement among practitioners and with our neighbors can often be strange bedfellows but this should not be the case teaching demands many talents and takes many forms but few teachers devote most of their working life to the teaching of those who are oppressed eleanor aitken did and her story a detailed and shocking account of the plight of palestinians makes remarkable reading having seen at first hand how cruelly mistreated and maligned they were she felt strongly the need to help more people to understand the palestinian situation their history and their culture the founding of an educational trust for palestinians in which the author s role was instrumental had a dual aim to help westerners especially native speakers of english to learn at first hand about palestine and palestinians and to give palestinians particularly refugees an opportunity to express through the english language the injustices they have suffered the stories of individuals with whom the author came into contact are woven into her own story this wide ranging collection of papers describes aspects of the modern history and theology of christianity in the middle east transsexualism is a phenomenon of our time at other times and in other places there have been or still are people not living in the sex of their origin and having a special status in western culture however hormones and surgery have become available through advances in medical science which have made sex change a reality but the christian presence is not just history there are living worshipping christian communities in the holy land today this unique guidebook is designed to help you encounter those communities and to walk talk and pray with contemporary christians in israel the palestinian and occupied territories the living stones of the book s title written half a century after the creation of the state of israel with the co operation of all the christian traditions in the holy land it is a key companion for visitors who want to share for a while the thoughts and the life witness and presence of those who now live the faith of the apostles in this troubled land jacket in this new and wide ranging book david mcdowall author of the highly respected 1986 mrg report on the palestinians traces their story from the late nineteenth century to the present day he describes their first fears before 1914 of the zionist aim to build a jewish state in palestine the fulfilment of their worst expectations in the wars of 1948 and 1967 the situation of the palestinian minority within israel israel s occupation of the west bank and gaza strip the palestinian response and the intifada the 1991 gulf war and the subsequent search for peace the interfaith peace network of western new york chose to commission this book to remember sister karen klimczak ssj buffalo s beloved champion of nonviolence who dedicated her life to providing sanctuary and hope for ex offenders and was killed on good friday in 2006 by one of the men she served sister karen would not want this memory keeper to focus on her she lived as one with the community she served and that would be the context in which she would want to be remembered the book is divided into two parts part i provides an overview of sister karen s life and prison ministry it introduces the major themes of mysticism nonviolence forgiveness redemption charity and respect that governed her life in part ii the community writings explore these themes at the end of this book reflection and discussion questions will provide opportunities for readers individually or in groups to explore the themes this unique resource offers the fascinating account of donald e wagner s personal experience with the middle east and calls western christians to work with middle east christians in healing the pain of jews and palestinians wagner grippingly tells of his early involvement with streams of christianity that treat israel s possession of the holy land as fulfillment of a divine plan that will result in the apocalyptic battle of armageddon
