the third volume of richardson s magisterial life of picasso a groundbreaking contribution to our understanding of one of the greatest artists of the twentieth century here is picasso at the height of his powers in rome and naples producing the sets and costumes with cocteau for diaghilev s ballets russes and visiting pompeii where the antique statuary fuel his obsession with classicism in paris creating some of his most important sculpture and painting as part of a group that included braque apollinaire miró and breton spending summers in the south of france in the company of gerald and sara murphy hemingway and fitzgerald these are the years of his marriage to the russian ballerina olga khokhlova the mother of his only legitimate child paulo and of his passionate affair with marie thérèse walter who was as well his model and muse drawing on exhaustive research from interviews and unpublished archival material john richardson has produced the long awaited third volume of the definitive biography full of original groundbreaking new insights into picasso s life and work his lively and incisive analysis of the work meshes seamlessly with the rich and detailed narrative of this complex and sensual life the triumphant years reveals picasso at the height of his powers producing not only the costumes and sets for such diaghilev ballets russes productions as parade and tricornie but some of his most important sculpture and paintings these are tumultuous years picasso torn between marital respectability with olga the russian ballerina who was his first wife and the erotic passion of his mistress marie therese this extraordinary biography ends with the completion of a dramatic series of drawings of the crucifixion from then on the horrors of war would replace any private horrors leading ultimately to picasso s masterpiece guernica picasso s interest in ceramics arose briefly at the turn of the century and later between 1945 and 1973 ran parallel to sculpture and engraving in his sixties picasso tackled ceramics again attracted by the material s potential by the way its plastic properties allowed him to adapt it to his imagination a number of skilled ceramists lived near his home in vallauris including the ramie family whose madoura workshop produced the vast majority of the spanish artist s work this volume presents 61 ceramic pieces by picasso that range from unfired clay to ceramics fired at high temperature and porcelain decorated with paint and enamel all of the works are illustrated in color including plates dishes vases bottles and zoomorphic jugs wall floor roof tiles and fragments of brick handled and metamorphosed by the artist s hand also included are pieces that are sculptures in their own right some items are enameled or painted others incised or engraved while the function of still others was transformed through the magical power of the artist picasso succeeded in giving mediterranean ceramics new impetus in tune bot his genius and 20th century art tommy simpson almost singlehandedly changed the direction of the studio furniture movement here s the definitive catalog of the man who even designed a stamp for the u s postal service and whose furniture is in the smithsonian american art museum with over 200 color photographs a beautiful book that showcases how circus figures and artifacts have been portrayed in art over the past two centuries the circus is a dazzling world filled with acrobats and harlequins tumblers and riders monsters and celestial creatures now this engaging book sets that world in a new light examining how painters sculptors and photographers from the eighteenth century to the present have used the circus as a springboard for their imaginative expression and have envisioned the clown as a metaphor for the modern artist the book presents more than 175 works by such artists as degas toulouse lautrec rouault picasso chagall and léger some of these are masterful works shown for the first time these range from the 18 meter stage curtain picasso designed in 1917 for erik satie s ballet parade to more intimate works such as nadar and tournachon s photographs of pierrot as played by celebrated mime charles debureau issues for nov 1957 include section accessions aanwinste sept 1957 also published separately presented here for the first time are ceramic works by 23 twentieth century european artists all from the extensive collection of artists pottery at the museum het kruithuis in the netherlands the only such collection in the world book jacket
